

History Cafe Presents

Bring your friends and join the conversation!

---

STATE EMPLOYEES RECEIVE 20% OFF WITH STATE ID!

---

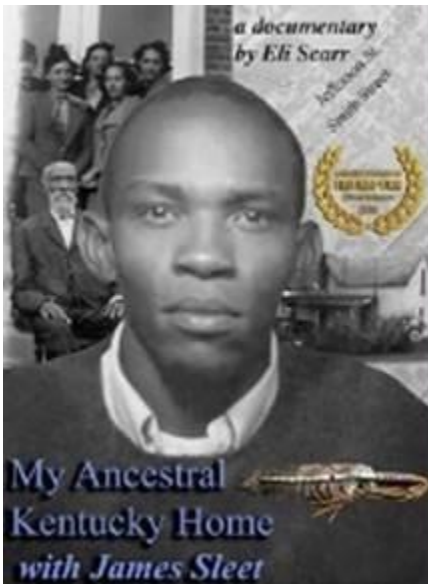

Please join us for a documentary and a dynamic discussion with the film director at the next History Café, when we present My Ancestral Kentucky Home.

June 14

Kentucky Historical Society

100 W. Broadway

Frankfort, KY 40601

This 30-minute film features Lexington activist James Sleet, who traced his roots to a freed slave community established near Perryville after the Civil War. Sleet and film director Eli Scarr will lead a discussion of the documentary immediately after the showing. See the exhibit, "Photographing Freetowns: African American Kentucky through the Lens of Helen Balfour Morrison," before or after the program and help us identify the people and streets depicted in these compelling images of nearby Kentucky towns.

---

Doors open at 5 p.m.

Program begins at 5:30 p.m.

$10 members; $15 others

Price includes soft drinks and hors d'oeuvres

Walk-ins are welcome; reservations are appreciated.

To save your place call 502-564-1792, ext. 4408
(be sure to let us know you're a state employee).

